

Apollo Bay Golf Club

Policy for Weekly Competitions at Apollo Bay Golf Club (ABGC)

Effective Date: 11th August 2025

Policy Statement

This policy is designed to provide clarity on the payments required for people who are playing in ABGC's weekly competitions.

Purpose

Ensure all players in the competitions are contributing to the costs of maintaining the golf course, the costs of using software, which is paid for by ABGC, to organise and conduct the competition and the overheads incurred by ABGC when the clubhouse is used during competitions.

Implementation

- 1) If at the time of the competition:
 - a) a current member has not paid their membership fee by the end of April each year; or
 - b) for new members, within a month of receiving an invoice to join the club; or
 - c) for a player who is not a member of ABGCthey have two options:
 - 2) For members or new members, they can pay their subscription immediately, in which case they proceed under paragraph 4) below, or
 - 3) For visitors and members who cannot pay their subscription (for whatever reason), they pay the applicable Green Fee on the date of play – plus competition fees relevant to the competition being played i.e. his/her contribution to prizes awarded for the competition.
- 4) Financial members pay only the competition fees relevant to the competition being played i.e. his/her contribution to prizes awarded for the competition.

Compliance and Consequences

Each person playing in any weekly competition at ABGC must comply with this policy.

Persons who are not a financial member of ABGC and who do not pay the Green Fee applicable on the date of play are not permitted to play in the competition.

Approved by ABGC Board: 11th August 2025

Graham Hill

President/Secretary